

Low Vision Discussion

Thursday, October 27th

1:00pm

Madison Senior Center

Guest Speaker:

Marcy Sanders, Associate Professor
Occupational Therapy Quinnipiac University

The Lion's Club has opened a Lion's Low Vision center at Quinnipiac. The center offers low vision screening and low vision devices free of charge. Madison Senior Center is planning a trip to the Lions Low Vision center with screenings for low vision devices for up to 4 people at one time. Join us for this informational session on the benefits of the program.

Please register by Friday, October 24th.
